

Deceased Estate Notification, Indemnity & Authority to Close Account(s)

At BDCU Alliance Bank ('Bank') we appreciate losing a family member is heart breaking and we understand you are dealing with a lot right now, so we have developed this form to make it as simple as possible to settle the estate.

Important information about completing this form:

Different requirements apply depending on the total of the Deceased's solely held assets with the Bank. If the estate assets held with the Bank:

- Do not exceed $50,000: Complete sections 1,2,3,4 & 5 of this form ensuring sections 4 and 5 are signed by all Executors and/or the closest Next of Kin. Provide certified supporting documents - refer section 6.
- Exceeds $50,000: Complete sections 1, 2, 3 & 4 ensuring section 4 is signed by all Executors and/or the closest Next of Kin and provide certified supporting documents - refer section 6. Note: The Bank requires the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration.

Section 4 relates to Personal Representatives who are either the Executor(s) as named in the Will; or if there is no Will, the deceased's closest Next of Kin. See section 6 for important information if the estate assets are $15,000 or less.

Please tick (✓) only the relevant boxes throughout this form.

Please return to the Bank, this completed and signed form together with the certified support documents, as detailed in section 6.

Section 6. Confirmation of Death & Supporting Documentation

Please tick ✓ the relevant boxes below for certified copies of documents you are providing with this form – refer Note 1.

The following certified copies of documents are usually required so that we can determine the closest Next of Kin and/or Executors:

- Death Certificate – refer Note 2
- Will (most recent valid Will), if there is one.
- Identification of all Executors/closest Next of Kin e.g. Current Australian Drivers Licence or Passport.
- Satisfactory evidence of domestic relationship with the Deceased (if applicable).

For estate assets of $15,000 or less, the Bank will pay the estate funds to the closest Next of Kin providing the closest Next of Kin has completed and signed this form in Sections 4 and 5 and where there is a Will, the Executor(s) also completes and signs this form in Sections 4 and 5. Other conditions and requirements may apply prior to the Bank granting the release of the funds.

The following documents are required if the funeral expenses are to be paid from the Deceased's Account or expenses refunded:

- Funeral Invoice
- Receipt for payment of Funeral Invoice.

The following certified copies of documents are usually only required if the Deceased's solely held assets with the Bank exceed $50,000:

- Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration
- Registrar's Certificate of Disclosure (required in South Australia only)
- Letter from Public/State Trustee or Solicitor if acting on your behalf.

Depending on the circumstances we reserve our right to request further information and support documentation.

Note 1:

Original documents may be photocopied at a BDCU Alliance Bank branch and certified as a true and correct copy of the original by a BDCU Alliance Bank Branch Officer. The original documents are then returned to you.

If documents are not original, the Bank requires an original certified copy (certified by an eligible witness).

Note 2:

For personal deposit and savings accounts held jointly with another party, only the Death Certificate is required. Additional documentation may be required for business accounts.
